English courses, student life
and support in the heart of Dublin

A SMALL SCHOOL WITH A WIDE WORLD VIEW

English feels different when it becomes your life.

At ULearn, you do more than study English. You use it to make friends, discover Dublin, open new doors and feel more at home in the world.

The goal is not just better grammar. The goal is walking into real life with more confidence.

YOUR CLASSROOM IS A CAPITAL CITY

Dublin is compact, creative and easy to love.

Study beside St Stephen's Green, walk to cafés, galleries and music, and use English every day in one of Europe's friendliest capitals.

ULearn · Dublin 2

Speak it

Real English from class to coffee, shops, work and weekends.

Walk it

A central school close to the city's parks, culture and transport.

Live it

Literature, music, sport, history and a famously social welcome.

PERSONAL, PROVEN, PRACTICAL

A school big enough to open doors, small enough to know your name.

Students choose ULearn because the teaching is serious, the atmosphere is human, and the experience stretches far beyond the classroom.

Nearly 40 years in Dublin

ULearn opened in 1988 and has helped students from all over the world build confidence in English.

Recognised quality

Recognised by ACELS/QQI and proudly connected with Ireland's English language education sector.

Central Harcourt Street

Study in Dublin 2, beside the Luas, St Stephen's Green and the daily life of the city.

Real support

From level testing to accommodation guidance and everyday questions, we help students settle in.

HOW LEARNING FEELS

SERIOUS LEARNING, RELAXED CONFIDENCE

We teach English for use, not display.

You still need structure. You still need correction. But the point is always the same: more natural communication when it matters.

Recycle

Meet useful language again and again until it feels available, not memorised.

Repair

Notice mistakes, understand them and become more independent as a speaker.

Refine

Move from "correct enough" toward clearer, more natural English.

AFTER CLASS IS PART OF THE LESSON

Make Dublin your practice ground.

City walks

Use English while exploring Dublin's streets and stories.

Culture

Museums, galleries, music, literature and local favourites.

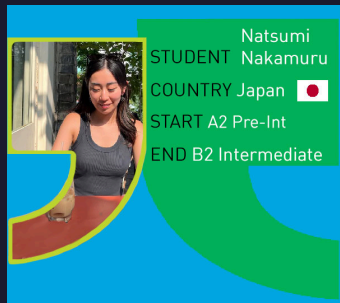

Community

Meet classmates from around the world and build your network.

Weekends

Discover more of Ireland with friends and optional trips.

GLOBAL ULEARN FAMILY

The best English practice is human.

Our students often arrive for the course and leave with friendships, confidence and Dublin memories they carry for years.

YOUR HOME IN DUBLIN

Choose the stay that suits your life.

01

Student Apartments

Independent living with other international students in shared apartments.

02

Irish Host Families

Daily English practice, local culture and half-board meals.

03

Hostels & Hotels

Flexible short-stay options in central Dublin locations.

04

Guidance

Advice before you book, with options matched to dates and availability.

Tip: Dublin accommodation can move quickly. The earlier you ask, the more options you usually have.

FOR STUDENTS BUILDING A LONGER STAY

English can help you participate, not just pass a test.

Many students come to Ireland because they want to study English and experience working life, friendships and daily independence in an English-speaking city.

CV support

Guidance to help your English CV sound clear, professional and ready for the Irish jobs market.

Job-finding advice

Practical pointers on where to look, how to prepare and what employers may expect.

Life admin

Help with everyday questions such as bank accounts, PPS numbers and settling into Dublin.

Interview confidence

Classroom English becomes useful when you can introduce yourself, explain experience and ask good questions.

WHAT STUDENTS REMEMBER

Confidence has a sound: students speaking for themselves.

“A very student-friendly environment. The teachers warmly corrected my speaking and helped me overcome my fear.”
